Conditional Licensing Requirements & General Information

A conditional license allows an applicant for the transfer of ownership only of a retail license (Class C, Tavern, B-Hotel, A-Hotel, Specially Designated Distributor, or Specially Designated Merchant) to operate the business before final approval of the permanent license transfer. A conditional license may also be issued to an applicant requesting a new standalone Specially Designated Merchant license.

All the permits that are issued with the license to be transferred will be included with the conditional license, but no new permits will be allowed to be added to the conditional license.

Conditional licenses cannot be issued for requests for the transfer of the location of a license, new on-premises licenses, or new Specially Designated Distributor licenses.

Licensing Process

The Licensing Division reviews the application and corresponding documents for completeness and verifies the appropriate fees have been received. If additional documents, fees, or corrections to documents are needed, Licensing will notify the applicant. Once all the necessary documents have been received Licensing will submit the request to the Enforcement Division for its investigation for the permanent license investigation. The conditional license request is prepared for the Commission to consider and placed on a docket for an upcoming licensing meeting.

The Commission considers the request for a conditional license, including the liquor license operating history of the applicant (if a current or prior licensee), the arrest and conviction record of the applicant, whether the applicant meets the requirements for a license, and the opinions of the local legislative body or police department, if received. The Commission will approve or deny the request based on these factors. Occasionally, the Commission will request more information from the applicant before making a final decision.

After the Commission makes a decision on the conditional license request, the file is returned to Licensing for final processing. Approval orders are sent to the applicant requesting any final items before the issuance of the license. Denial orders are sent to the applicant and the applicant may appeal the decision. When all the final items are received by Licensing, the completed request is forwarded to the Renewal Unit for the issuance of the physical license documents.

Conditional licenses expire 20 business days after the issuance of the approval order for the permanent license to the applicant or after all appeals of a permanent license denial have been exhausted. Conditional licenses also expire after one year if the permanent license request has not been completed. Conditional licenses cannot be renewed.
